Theatre Day Productions

Request for consultancy service /External Evaluation

Theatre Day Productions /Ayyam Al Masrah

Theatre Day Productions (Ayyam Al Masrah), a.k.a. TDP, is a Palestinian-registered non-profit company. TDP has demonstrated to be an experienced provider of youth theatre and drama services as well as a training organization for Palestinian children, young adults, and women in the field of drama, expression, storytelling, and cultural management. It successfully launched two branches, one in Gaza (1995) and one in Hebron (1997) each with an equipped theatre and office space. In a program for creative intervention using drama and theatre, TDP has targeted the most vulnerable groups of the local Palestinian communities in and around these population centers. The theatre-artistic methodologies TDP conducts have proven to be important to Human Recovery as well as to Cultural Development and the strengthening of Palestinian identity. TDP's activities specifically aim at Individual Empowerment, Community Development, and the protection of Human Rights.

TDP is seeking a highly qualified consultant/consultancy firm for the consultancy service of external evaluation for the project: "Dignity through cultural action by Palestinian children, youth, and women – developing and sustaining a creative grassroots human rights operation in Gaza." Funded by Bread for the World.

The project main objectives are:

- The participants in TDP's drama and theatre work are agents of change in their community promoting free expression, calling for cohesion, and opposing violence and discrimination in all its forms.
- Palestinian youth who have completed TDP's training narrow their gender disparities.
- The Gaza cultural sector is strengthened with an actively working autonomous organization for performing arts and community development.

Required Qualification:

TDP is looking for a consultant or consultancy firm, with following qualifications:

- About 7 years progressively responsible experience in evaluation and management field, three of them in evaluating cultural projects/programs.
- Excellent English and Arabic writing/reporting skills.
- Ability to independently research a large volume of information under a tight deadline.
- Good knowledge about performing arts and independent cultural expression.
- Thorough knowledge on the sociopolitical and cultural situation in Palestine, especially in the Gaza strip.
- Knowledge about evaluation methods and techniques.
- Proven experience in working/evaluating cultural intervention for development and human rights.

Qualified consultant/consultancy firms can obtain a copy of the ToR from TDP office:
Gaza – Al Jalaa' Street, next to YMCA.
