

NUMBERS OF ACTIVITIES & BENEFICIARIES OVER THE YEARS

2016

- 9 plays were made
- 36,865 kids saw youth performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 5,767 adults saw youth performances
- 1,593 women saw women storytelling performances & forums
- 667 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,313 kids participated in animation workshops
- 34 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 32 teachers learned to use drama, animation and storytelling in class
- 208 NGO educators learned to use drama, animation and storytelling with children
- 61,576 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2015

- 21 plays were made
- 139,600 kids saw youth performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 12,906 adults saw youth performances
- 2,187 women saw women storytelling performances & forums
- 1,005 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,510 kids participated in animation workshops
- 105 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 180 teachers learned to use drama, animation and storytelling in class
- 67 NGO educators learned to use drama, animation and storytelling with children
- 177,246 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2014

- 9 plays were made
- 77,141 kids saw youth performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 5,215 adults saw youth performances
- 2,599 women saw women storytelling performances & forums
- 848 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,415 kids participated in animation workshops
- 35 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 230 teachers learned to use drama, animation and storytelling in class
- 178 CBOs educators learned to use drama, animation and storytelling with children
- 104,624 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2013

- 11 plays were made

- 123,335 kids saw youth performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 12,859 adults saw youth performances
- 476 women saw women storytelling forums
- 819 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,800 kids participated in animation workshops
- 57 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 151 teachers learned to use drama, animation and storytelling in class
- 39 NGO educators learned to use drama, animation and storytelling with children
- 158,293 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2012

- 11 plays were made
- 30,014 kids saw performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 2,473 adults saw performances
- 984 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,293 kids participated in animation workshops
- 57 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 146 teachers learned to use drama in class
- 98 NGO educators learned to use drama with children
- 57,182 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2011

- 9 plays were made
- 163, 185 kids saw performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 19,148 adults saw performances
- 530 kids participated in drama workshops
- 2,305 kids participated in animation workshops
- 38 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 133 teachers learned to use drama in class
- 35 ngo educators learned to use drama with children
- 192, 532 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2010

- 9 plays were made (including 1 for kindergarten kids)
- 168,375 kids saw performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 14,290 adults saw performances
- 535 kids participated in drama workshops
- 3,150 kids participated in animation workshops
- 48 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 62 teachers learned to use drama in class
- 20 kindergarten teachers learned to use drama with 4-5 year olds
- 30 mental health workers learned to use drama in their work
- 202,850 is the number of our indirect beneficiaries

2009

- Counting...

2008

- 32,370 kids saw performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 495 kids participated in drama workshops
- 708 kids participated in animation workshops
- 36 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 1,725 kids participated in the drama workshops in Summer Games
- 380 kids were taught drama skills by school counselors trained by TDP
- And between all this, some 12,195 adults are indirect beneficiaries

2007

- 34,350 kids saw performances and shared in post performance workshops
- 615 kids participated in drama workshops
- 1,536 kids participated in animation workshops
- 75 kids made and toured plays (Kids for Kids)
- 17,943 kids participated in the drama workshops in the Summer Games
- 1,057 kids were taught drama skills by school counselors trained by TDP
- And between all this, some 24,000 adults are indirect beneficiaries